PROGRAM: Newsnight

DATE: 5 August 1965, 6:00 P.M.

STATION: WTOP-TV

SPEAKER: Robert J. Donovan, Washington
Bureau Chief, LOS ANGELES TIMES

CPYRGHT

Robert J. Donovan, correspondent, on Newsnight, WTOP-TV, at 6:00 P.M., 5 August 1965, delivered a commentary on Presidential appointments, saying that "when Admiral Raborn was chosen to fill the lofty position of CIA director, there were legions--and I confess to being one--who didn't know immediately who Admiral Raborn was..." He went on to say, however, that officials of this type are bound to improve the tone of the Johnson Administration. (The foregoing is paraphrased).

PROGRAM: ABC News

DATE: 7 August 1965, 6:30 P.M.

STATION: ABC Radio

SPEAKER: Alex Dreier, ABC News Commentator

CPYRGHT

Alex Dreier, on ABC radio, 6:30 P.M., 7 August 1965, said any nation which does not have a good espionage system is derelict in its duty to its citizens. He said that things are becoming too difficult for "free lance" spies, with the result that we can look forward to paying them more, and quickly... Some, he said, are going into industrial spying, because of the security and retirement benefits.

PROGRAM: WTOP News

DATE: 7 August 1965, 6:40 P.M.

STATION: WTOP Radio

SPEAKER: Jack Anderson, WASHINGTON POST

CPYRGHT

Jack Anderson, on WTOP Radio, 6:40 P.M., 7 August 1965, datelined his story, "Central Intelligence Agency:--" and said the latest intelligence report on the whereabouts of Che Guevara of Cuba is that he has been visiting his home village of Cordoba, Argentina, that he also made a stopover, according to the intelligence report, in Peru. Anderson points out that Guevara is an expert in the use of explosives in sabotage; it may be only a coincidence, says Anderson, that there were a series of explosions in Argentina and Peru.
